Rose Bruford Theatre Arts College: 2006 - 2008. Taught by David Hunt, Tony James and Lucy Harrison. With our final grades we weren't marked with scores such as A - F but remarked on us as a whole class and individually.

Together we were marked as "the best performance of the year." Our class was rated top of the other classes.

And individually my teachers said I have "continually improved" throughout the terms; my main goals were that I needed to work on staying loud, not quieten down in a performance and stay in character if something goes wrong while on stage.

Apart from that I had high remarks and they said I can only do better with practise and life experience.
