LOGLINE

After an unexpected invite to the popular girl's birthday party, a young girl must choose between spending precious time with her single mother or making new friends.

SYNOPSIS

Madeline is a story about the transition from childhood to adolescence. In the film, a 12-year-old Madeline is faced with a decision: stay home and spend time cooking with her mother like she always has, or go to the popular girl's birthday party for the chance at finally being seen as popular herself.

DIRECTOR BIO

Adam Birch is an Ohio raised, Los Angeles based director and cinematographer. He graduated from Northwestern University's Radio/TV/Film program with a concentration on Cinematography. His favorite movies include The Social Network, No Country for Old Men, Chinatown, and Boogie Nights. When he's not on set, Adam loves cooking with friends and family, photography, and a good drive along twisting canyon roads.
