EVIL CAUGHT ON TAPE

13 min

Found Footage / Horror

Camping Fun follows the 2014 cold case of four missing friends out of a small rural Texas town. After six years of silence, investigators have now recovered what is considered to be key evidence found on a partially damaged video camera.

As members of family have now confirmed a positive ID on the group, serious questions are being asked of federal police to look further into the missing four and their last recorded footage.

WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY THOMAS BURKE & DAVID EIMER

DIRECTOR'S BIO

Thomas Burke is an award-winning filmmaker based in Austin, Texas. Over ten years, he has produced and edited a wide variety of shorts, feature films and documentaries. In 2013, he received his B.B.A. from St. Edward's University in Digital Media Management. Upon graduating, Thomas joined a two-year film and editing apprenticeship with the Austin Film Festival; working as an assistant editor on their two-time Lone Star Emmy award-winning TV series, ON STORY. Since then, Burke has contributed to a number of acclaimed films, including his award-winning western short, THE MAKING OF THE LOST SON (2015) - as well as his latest feature-drama, AFTER THE NIGHT WITH VALERIE (2020), awarded Best Feature Film at the Direct Monthly Online Film Festival. Today, Burke works as the lead editor and producer for an independently owned science and health-based news organization in Texas.
