Employment History:

I am self-employed and work in the film and TV industry on many different productions in a variety of areas. Some of my freelance jobs include directing live TV & pre-records for Edge Media, being director of photography on a series of interactive DVD games that have been distributed, being 2nd camera operator on a TV pilot about extreme plane sports, putting graphics on educational maths videos, filming and editing training videos for the NHS, Bedford Prison and Milton Keynes & Bedford Council. I have also filmed the greyhound racing at Henlow & Hoddesdon dog track live on many occasions, and I have filmed many live events, including plays & music concerts. I also make independent short films, one award winning, and have made a large number of world wide distributed feature films. I also run workshops for filmmaking, covering all aspects including directing, filming & editing.

Interests and Hobbies:

I have had a great passion for the film and TV industry since I was 5 years old. I followed my dream and went to college to study filmmaking, which I really enjoyed. I spent three years at college studying all aspects including editing, directing, producing, filming, script writing, etc. I am very enthusiastic and would like to work my way up further in the industry. My goal is to be a successful director in the film industry.
