DIRECTOR BIO

Andy Palmer is a multi-award winning film director and editor.

His latest feature, 'The Re-Education of Molly Singer' is currently being represented by The Gersh Agency and stars, Britt Robertson, Nico Santos, Ty Simpkins, and Jaime Pressly.

'Camp Cold Brook', Executive Produced by legendary film director Joe Dante, won Best Feature at the 2018 Shriekfest and Horrorhound Film Festivals, and was released theatrically in February of 2020.

After winning Best Feature at the 2015 Horrorhound and RIP Film festivals as well as an Official Selection in the highly touted Telluride Horror Show, 'The Funhouse Massacre' was released theatrically and became a VOD and DVD hit for distributor, The Shout Factory.

Recently Andy directed 'Justice for Vincent' a film centered around the tragic murder of engineer Vincent Chin in 1982. To date, the film has been accepted in 25 international film festivals and has garnered over 17 awards, including, Best Short Film at the 2019 Philadelphia Independent Film Festival, Hollywood Reel Independent Film Festival, The Los Angeles Film Awards and won the Audience Choice Award at the 2019 DisOrient Asian American Film Festival.

In Television Andy recently directed, and was Supervising Producer for the television pilot "Stay Alive" for CMT and 51 Minds Entertainment.

He recently directed the horror comedy feature 'Witness Infection', which has been selected to the 2020 HA Comedy Arts Festival, Horrorhound, and Die Laughing Film Festivals. And recently won "Best Director" and "Best Practical Effects" at the 2020 Frostbite Film Festival.

I've been in love with movies since my parents first plunked me down in front of the TV and Betamax player and hit play. I approach directing films from the same place as I watch them, as a fan. Films that I make are films that I would like to sit with my best friends in a dark basement and watch over and over again. Good stories, good characters, something to laugh at, someone to cheer for. If there are interesting characters making interesting choices, I want to shoot it. Being on set is a magical experience, and if I can bottle up that magic and successfully project it to an audience via the screen, I can't think of any better job than that.

JOE DANTE PRESENTS

CAMP COLD BROOK

Cast:
Chad Michael Murray (Riverdale, One Tree Hill, House of Wax)

Danielle Harris (The Last Boy Scout, Rob Zombie's Halloween, Once Upon A Time In Hollywood)

Synopsis:

Executive Produced by legendary filmmaker Joe Dante, (Gremlins, The Burbs, The Howling) Chad Michael Murray stars as reality TV producer and host Jack Wilson, who finds himself in a tough spot when his show is about to be canceled. In a last-ditch effort to spark ratings, he and his producer Angela (Danielle Harris) choose to film their next episode at the legendary Camp Cold Brook, which was host to a horrific incident where the young campers were drowned in a nearby creek 20 years ago. Their arrival begins like any other episode... but the TV crew find that they get more than they bargained for.”

SCREEN SHOTS

“CAMP COLD BROOK” IS A CLEVERLY PLOTTED, ATMOSPHERIC GHOST STORY. A TALENTED CAST, AND DIRECTOR ANDY PALMER’S ENERGETIC PACE AND PLAYFUL TONE DO MAKE “CAMP COLD BROOK” UNUSUALLY FUN.

-NOEL MURRAY, THE LOS ANGELES TIMES

“IMAGINE MY SURPRISE WHEN THE FILM TURNS OUT TO BE A SUPERNATURAL THRILLER, WITH NARY A STALKER TO BE FOUND. IT’S AN ORIGINAL SET-UP AND I CAN SAY WITH A GREAT BIG SMILE PLASTERED TO MY FACE... CAMP COLD BROOK IS A HOOT.”

-MICHAEL KLUG, HORROR FREAK NEWS.

PALMER’S DIRECTION IS QUITE GOOD, CAMP COLD BROOK IS WELL-ACTED, INTENSELY EDITED, AND MANAGES TO MAKE BOTH SLASHERS AND FOUND FOOTAGE/ GHOST HUNTING TALES INTERESTING AGAIN.

-BOBBY LEPIRE, FILM THREAT

A KILLER CAST THRILLS IN CAMP COLD BROOK – A CAMPY, CLEVER SUMMER CAMP HORROR ROMP. IT’S EASY TO DIVE IMMEDIATELY INTO THE FUN AND FEAR BEHIND THIS SPOOKY CAMPFIRE TALE GONE MODERN.

JUSTICE FOR VINCENT

Cast:

Lee Chen (Good Trouble, VEEP)

William McNamara (Dream a Little Dream, Surviving the Game, Copycat)

Peter Adrian Sudarso (Power Rangers, Pretty Dudes)

Synopsis:

Based on a true story, the short film Justice For Vincent (JFV) re-tells the brutal beating of Chinese-American Vincent Chin by two disgruntled auto workers, who mistook Chin for being Japanese during the so-called 'Japanese Auto Invasion' in Detroit 1982. The tragedy of Chin's murder and the travesty of the justice system cut deep into the traditionally quiet Chinese community, sparking what is regarded as the first Pan-Asian civil rights movement in America.

SCREEN SHOTS

THE FUNHOUSE MASSACRE

Cast:

Robert Englund (A Nightmare on Elm Street, Urban Legends, Wishmaster)

Jere Burns (Justified, Burn Notice)

Scottie Thompson (NCIS, 12 Monkeys, Skyline)

Synopsis:

Six of the world's scariest psychopaths escape from a local Asylum and proceed to unleash terror on the unsuspecting crowd of a Halloween Funhouse, whose themed mazes are inspired by their various reigns of terror.

The Funhouse Massacre had a 20-city theatrical release and is currently Shout Factory's second highest selling original film, behind only 'The Babadook'

- KEN LOVELL, SCREEN-CONNECTIONS

BADLANDS OF KAIN

Cast:

Paul Soter (Super Troopers, Beerfest, Dukes of Hazzard)

Rachelle DiMaria (Find Me, Masters of Sex)

James Marshall (Twin Peaks, A Few Good Men, Gladiator)

Synopsis:

Shannon and Kris embark on a cross country road trip, to put back the pieces of their strained friendship. But it all falls apart when their car breaks down in Kain, Arizona. A place where you can check in anytime you want, but you can never leave.

“BADLANDS OF KAIN PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE SMART, STYLISH THRILLERS OF HITCHCOCK AND THE MIND-BENDING EPISODES OF THE TWILIGHT ZONE. PALMER IS JUST AS CAPABLE WITH SLOW-BURNING SUSPENSE AS HE IS WITH FAST-PACED SPLATTER.”

-STEPHANIE MALONE, MORBIDLY BEAUTIFUL

“BADLANDS OF KAIN IS WELL PRESENTED BY DIRECTOR, ANDY PALMER. THE SHOOTING STYLE IS SLICK, THE LIGHTING ATMOSPHERIC AND THE SUSPENSE LAY IN THE MYSTERY BEHIND THE TOWN OF KAIN.”

- ADAM THE MOVIE GOD

Cast:

Kathryn Lyn (Lesser Miracles, PHX)

Cameron Bender (Melissa and Joey, Mistresses)

Carlos Alazraqui (Reno 911, Rocko's Modern Life, Witness Infection)

Synopsis:

Find Me tells the story of newlyweds Emily and Tim as they settle into a small farm house in Emily's childhood hometown. Before the boxes can even be unpacked, the couple realizes that there are strange occurrences happening in the house that were not disclosed by the real estate agent. At first more curious than scared, Tim, Emily and Emily's childhood friend Claire, embark on finding out who or what is haunting their house. As clues to a dark history of not only the house, but to Emily's past begin to unfold, what began as a series unusual paranormal episodes, soon morphs into violent acts, and the couple find themselves at the mercy of a vengeful spirit.

“PALMER DISPLAYS TALENT BEHIND THE CAMERA. HIS VOYEURISTIC APPROACH WITHIN THE CLAUSTROPHOBIC WALLS OF THE INTERIOR BRINGS A SENSE OF UNEASE TO DULLER MOMENTS AND INCREASES THE CREEPINESS FACTOR OF AN OTHERWISE INNOCUOUS SETTING.”

- ROB GETZ, HORRORNEWS.NET

“PALMER MANAGES TO DELIVER FAR MORE THAN ANYBODY CAN REALISTICALLY EXPECT FROM A PRODUCTION THIS OBVIOUSLY MODEST, SO MAJOR PROPS TO HIM FOR THAT.”
