

Equipped with a strong foundational knowledge of Film Production and received global recognition for the recent short films, now willing to take it to the next step by studying a comprehensive program to sharpen filmmaking skills in the film-conducive milieu of Canada. Aspiring to upskill myself amidst the North American film fraternity in all the facets of film production, from screenwriting to distributing short and feature films.

Independent Film Experience

The Patricide-2022

The most recent project, which I am currently Producing and Editing. The story of The Patricide revolves around a person who is suffering from alexithymia, as he has been interrogated by a detective over a murder.

Winds of Woes-Pitchtape-2022

It is a pitch to give an idea about my upcoming project in the later years, it is about the life on planet Earth after finding that God has attempted to commit suicide.

For Death with Love-2021

It is my highly acclaimed and Internationally recognized short film, which has received awards around the globe. This film is about, a person suffering from Cotard Delusion or Walking Corpse Syndrome. He has a lot of false delusions, the most prominent one is that he thinks he is dead or doesn't exist and someone is trailing him under his bed.

The Dead Society-2021

The Dead Poet Society is written by me, this film involves a person being haunted by a woman who was a victim.

What Could Go Wrong-2019

It is one of the initial films during my college days about science fiction and horror.

Mom's Meal-2019

This is part of the 48hrs challenge of filmmaking competition and crafted within 48hrs, this film is about healthy eating practices among teenagers.
