Biography

I am a multi-award-winning filmmaker. I'm a storyteller, cinematographer, and editor, knowledgeable in a wide array of film styles, including documentary, where I create artistic films with meaningful stories to captivate my audience. Based in Boulder, Colorado, I found a passion for filmmaking, pursuing my talent both professionally and in my free time. My films have been in dozens of film festivals across the world. The notoriety has been encouraging but my primary focus is to inspire others and to continue growing as a filmmaker.
