Dear Participant,

I wish to thank you for taking part in the 2nd edition of the Youth Eyes on the Silk Roads international photo contest, as organised by UNESCO within the Silk Roads Programme, and in collaboration with the China World Peace Foundation. The Selection Committee were particularly impressed with the quality of the photographs submitted which brilliantly showcase the talent and creativity of young photographers, as well as the diversity and vibrancy of the shared heritage of the Silk Roads.

Of the 3,500-plus images that were submitted to the contest, yours was among the 76 'best of' as chosen by the Selection Committee to be included in the photo album 'Youth Lens on the Silk Roads'. This professionally printed album, which is also available as a UNESCO online publication, represents the best of the 2nd edition of the contest and I am pleased to enclose a copy of it herein. I very much hope you will enjoy this collection of beautiful images and reflections on the gastronomy, music, dance, and traditional sports and games of the Silk Roads, which shares your and your contemporaries' vision and understanding of the shared legacy of these routes and its vitality and importance in addressing the issues and challenges of our contemporary world.

I would invite you to continue to check the UNESCO Silk Roads Programme website (<https://en.unesco.org/silkroad/>), as well as that of the Youth Eyes on the Silk Roads Photo Contest (<https://unesco.org/silkroadphotocontest.org/>) for updates regarding future editions of the contest which, if you remain within an eligible age category, you may consider participating in. As Covid-19 continues to present barriers to access to education, the arts, and culture, now more than ever it is important to continue to develop initiatives such as this which bring us together in a virtual space and allow youth to share your vision for the post-pandemic world.

Finally, let me congratulate you on your success and encourage you to continue to pursue and share your creative talent!

With my best wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
