About Me:

I am a fully trained actor in both theatre and film.

I am a versatile character actor and am proficient in multi-role playing. I have performed in numerous theatre productions, from Shakespeare to Wilde, Coward, and even Pantomime.

I am also a director, and founder and tutor at Marble Academy for Drama
I have been in the industry for nearly 36 years.

I After many years of private tutoring, alongside my acting, I decided to start my own drama school here in Manchester.

In addition to running the academy, I privately tutor students one-on-one.

I have also written six short films and one feature film.

I also work as a freelance casting director, and I organise and host Actors and Filmmakers Networking Events.
