Profile

A collaborative leader passionate about film, television, project development, media production, and marketing.

Experience

Fairfax Public Access - TV Production: Lead Instructor (February 2023 - Present)

- Taught students how to engage and explore the broad media landscape of television, broadcasting, and podcasting using industry-standard software.
- Aided in the development of the course curriculum and instructed workshops on core studio equipment.
- Overall worked in the administrative and educational aspects of the station.

Malo Perspective - Creative Producer/Project Manager (May 2022 - Present)

- Creator of an Animated Comedy Anthology Channel where sketch comedy and short film meet animation.
- Strong creative vision and storytelling instincts, with the ability to generate compelling story ideas across different genres. Proficient in screenplay formatting, story structure, character development, and dialogue writing.
- Edited and compiled all the audio for each film. From the dialogue, sound effects, and music.
- Collaborated with my team to ensure we stayed on schedule and publish a short film every 3 months within the first year of operation.

Neighborworks America - Event Production Assistant (Temp. Position in October 2022)

- Performed comprehensive inventory assessments of training equipment and supplies which aided successful event operations.
- Skillfully managed the breakdown of returned event shipments and surplus supplies, maximizing efficiency and resource utilization.
