

Brother's Horn short film a few lines of summary:

A small workshop that makes ceramic dishes. Everywhere is packed with dishes that are easily broken and ready to be fired in the kiln. The elder brother is versatile and the owner of the workshop. The authority of the little brother is completely with him. Every morning at 9 o'clock in an innovative game, the person who broke the most dishes during yesterday's work will get the first slap. In an unwritten rule, the little brother has always been the loser of this game. Today, he riots against this law and can finally turn the game in his favor.