Skills

Three years of film production experience on thirty-five different film sets. Have worked as a production assistant, assistant cameraman, editor, producer, and director on student films. Have edited all of my own projects, and have contributed to editing several other projects as well. I am proficient in Premiere, Photoshop, Microsoft Office suit, and Google softwares.

Experience

January 2023

Borderlands - Office Production Assistant

- I worked as an office production assistant during the pre-production stages of the 2023 feature film Borderlands. My responsibilities included completing NDA's, and other essential paperwork for the production coordinator, communicating with each department about needs and expectations, and overseeing the handling of props, costumes, and other necessary production assets.

December 2021 - August 2022

O Brawling Love! - Production Assistant(uncredited)/Associate Producer

- I was given the privilege by my university to be an associate producer on the feature film O Brawling Love! The film is currently in post-production and will feature the acting talent of Yelena Friedman (American Vandal), and the directing talent of award winning director Maggie Mahart (Unbound, AFI Woman Conservatory Selection).
- My responsibilities included overseeing the multiple pre-production stages of the film. Most notably, I helped develop the script, and helped promote the film's production to multiple media outlets.
- I worked alongside the two producers of the film, George Simon and Eleazar Palma, as well as assisting the director, Maggie Mahart, on achieving their collective vision on the project.

Education

October 2019 - August 2022

John Paul the Great University, Escondido, CA - Graduated Cum Laude - Bachelor of Science in Communications Media, Emphasis in Film Production
