Introduction

I know a city with millions of stories to tell. There are stories of sorrows and pain & stories of joy and triumph! Some will break your heart in one moment and then lift your heart to new heights. This trailer is a true documentary story based from NYC's upper east side, "Spanish Harlem" will do that! A story from Puerto Rico to the island of Manhattan. A family struggling through mental illness.

Puerto Black Domino Affect Production LLC.

Hello, my name is Maribel Ramos-Brooks born and raised in the Upper East Side of Manhattan. I am writing to submit my documentary trailer, MARIBEL, for consideration at the International Film Festival. I believe that my trailer is a great pitch! I hope to attract everyone's attention at your festival, and I am excited about the opportunity to share it with your audience. "MARIBEL" is a true documentary based in Harlem. Its unique quality subject matter is family living with "Mental Illness" & Silence. Its theme patterns that will continue through generations to come if we can't turn back and study the history patterns that still affect us still in these critical times. Through intimate storytelling and captivating footage, the trailer explores a daughter's childhood history. I believe this timely and thought-provoking trailer will resonate with your audiences.

This is my first documentary trailer. I have a passion for storytelling and a strong commitment to creating impactful and socially relevant life experiences. I have poured my heart and soul into this project, and I am proud to see that being self-taught can be rewarding! My mission with my commitment as an director and editor is to engage and network with film industries. During my life, I try to inspire and empower families to come together in love. My project has been a very challenging test, and has tested me to the limit. I hope that MARIBEL will inspire, educate, and spark important conversations among viewers. And most of all, my intentions are to show the world what I am made of, "Life experiences that shape us to who we become!"

I am confident that my trailer will make a valuable addition to your festival lineup. I would be honored to have the opportunity to showcase it at The San Francisco International Film Festival and engage with fellow filmmakers and audience members. I like to take the opportunity to submit my trailer.

I have included a cover trailer picture for your review. Please let me know if there is any additional information or materials that you require. I look forward to the possibility of participating in The San Francisco International Film Festival and contributing to its success.

Mission:

Inspiring through pain and DV women never give up on themselves. The older we get the wiser we become! Changing careers in our late age should be ingenious!
