

LARISSA BROMLEY

ARTIST, ANIMATOR, FILMMAKER

My name is Larissa Bromley. I am an animation student at Griffith/Pulse college. I am a determined artist, animator, and storyteller. Enthusiastic about gaining more experience in my industry, I aim to use my art to tell visually impacting stories that stick with people. I have a background working for people in professional settings such as creating and working on animated music videos, 3-d modeling scientific diagrams, commissions and more. Much of my personal work is inspired by personal relationships with nature and the ocean, though I also enjoy working in/can work in varied styles with concepts catered to the projects of others.
