NEW FOR 2025 - Now available with his 6-piece band "The China Plates"

Since 2014, Tom Carradine has been captivating audiences with his trademark blend of music, humour and infectious energy. From the iconic Wilton's Music Hall in London to the vibrant Mr Fogg's Tavern in Covent Garden, Tom's sell-out performances have been a hit with audiences seeking a lively, feel-good night out. Whether headlining at festivals, vintage events, or Cockney nights across the UK and Europe, Tom's presence is always a crowd favourite. Beyond the stage, Tom's social media presence has taken the digital world by storm, with thousands tuning in to his popular live streams on Facebook or watching his content on Instagram and TikTok. In 2022, Tom's contribution to preserving the spirit of music hall was recognised by the British Music Hall Society with a prestigious award. Tom Carradine isn't just keeping tradition alive — he's making it the life of the party!
