ABOUT ME

Cadence is a documentary filmmaker passionate about fostering communication, and creating a space for understanding and empathy. She does professional work with quickness and attention to detail.

EXPERIENCE

- 2022-2023

Brainerd, MN

ISD 181 ARCHIVES (VOLUNTEER)

- As an archive volunteer I did extensive research and put together archival displays throughout the public schools in the area. I also put together a documentary honoring an alumni of the area who was earning a congressional gold medal. This documentary was shown at the congressional gold medal ceremony.

- 2023-2023

Brainerd, MN

ISD 181 COMMERCIAL CREATOR

- As a contracted worker I created short commercials for the school district. I filmed live footage throughout several different schools, conducted interviews, and then edited it all together.

- 2024

Chicago, IL

"DEFINITIONS" - PRODUCER/DIRECTOR

- "Definitions" is a short form documentary exploring young adult's relationships with their gender and identity. As a Producer and Director I budgeted for the film, conducted interviews, wrote the script, and edited the final product before showing it in a class and posting it on social media.
