About me

"I am a deeply social and nature-loving individual, passionate about using filmmaking as a tool to inspire awareness and promote humanism. My work focuses on fostering ideas that encourage societal growth and compassion. Driven by the belief in the power of media, I am dedicated to creating impactful content that builds awareness and contributes to a better future."

Recent Experience & Projects

SHORT FILM

2024 PARIS

BURN THAT TRASH

"BURN THAT TRASH," directed by Chris Mack, Official Selection at the Nikon Film Festival 2024.

I proudly contributed to this production as the 1st AC (Assistant Cinematographer), ensuring seamless camera operations and technical support to bring the director's vision to life.

SHORT FILM

2024 PARIS

FACE UNDER THE FACE

"Face Under the Face", I wrote and directed this silent film, which explores the emotional and physical journey of a refugee navigating life in Paris. The project focuses on storytelling through powerful visuals and subtle nuances, capturing the resilience and humanity of its protagonist.

SHORT FILM

2024 PARIS

SAY NO!

"SAY NO!", I wrote and directed this thought-provoking short film as a heartfelt call for peace and a rejection of war. The narrative delves into the post-war experiences of a teenage girl, capturing her emotional struggles and poignant questions about life and conflict. Told from the perspective of a child witnessing a world rife with violence, the film emphasizes the innocence lost in war and the urgent need for a more harmonious future.
