Filmmaker

Jane Larkin is a First Nations New Zealander of the Rangitāne Māori iwi living on the Sunshine Coast in Queensland, Australia. As well as being an actor, writer, director, and producer, she is a former professional track and field athlete.

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

As an actor, Jane is best known for her roles in MGM's THIRTEEN LIVES, the Netflix Original Series, BOY SWALLOWS UNIVERSE, the NBC production YOUNG ROCK, and the Australian road-trip mystery series DARBY AND JOAN.

Jane show-ran an independent feature film called THE EDGE which she wrote, starred in, directed and produced. THE EDGE tells the story of three female athletes and is based on her experience in the Australian and international circuits. THE EDGE had its world premiere at the Gold Coast Film Festival on May 2, 2025 before having its streaming debut on Netflix ANZ.

Jane's role in the comedy short BREAKING UP WITH CORONA earned her and her costar the Best Romantic Comedy Micro-Film at the Portland Comedy Festival.

Jane started her education studying Film and TV at Brigham Young University in the USA in a full-ride track and field. She completed her Bachelor of Arts in Australia and has also received her Graduate Diploma of Education, her Master of Communication and her Doctorate of Creative Arts and Philosophy in January 2023.

Jane was an elite sprint athlete who retired from sprinting after the 2018 Commonwealth Games Nomination Trials in 2018 on the Gold Coast. Since then, Jane has completed acting studies domestically and internationally, in Utah, Los Angeles, California, and Vancouver, Canada, where she moved in 2019. She has attended the Jeb Beach & Associates, as well as completing her Advanced Actor qualifications at the Ivana Chubbuck Studio in LA, California. Since returning to Australia, she has trained under Kristy Sexton, Ben Parkinson, Joey Vieira, Peter Rasmussen, Thea McLeod, Anthony Brandon Wong, Hugh Parker, Leigh Pickford, Daisy Hicks, and Greg Apps. However, Jane wanted to learn the industry holistically, and has crewed on various projects too, most recently in the second season of the Stan Original Series, BLACK SNOW, Ron Howard's EDEN, and Netflix's TRUE SPIRIT, where she was in the camera department. Jane also lent her talents in the 1st Assistant Director role for the short film - THE GORGE - with Lincoln Lewis.

Jane has also worked for elite athlete programs and plays an active role in the community. Jane facilitates the Diversity Fashion Showcase on the Sunshine Coast in 2023, coaches juniors in high-performance sport, and also works with young persons with disabilities. She is a proud First Nations New Zealander of the Rangitāne Māori iwi (tribe) and has always had an interest not only in sport, Film and TV, but also diversity, inclusion and equality. She believes film has the power to change the world and wrote, directed, produced, and starred in THE EDGE in order to be a role model and a positive force for change.
