THE BACKGROUND

I grew doing theatre, first as a scenic painter, then actor. After a few years, I started working as an assistant to a Producer at a local tv studio, mostly on daytime medical television production. I then went on to study and work. I very much fell in love with acting, but also the creative and business behind the scenes. I went on to study in San Francisco, California where I learned it's not what you know but how you come to know it. The best thing you can do as an artist to further advance is to create. I started writing, directing, and/or producing indie scripts with friends. After many years this would lead me to working with Netflix, Hallmark/LifeTime, Fox Network, yadda yadda yadda. You get it. The sky isn't even the limit. I stay "hungry". Let's work!
