

ABOUT MILAD

Milad Ahmadi is a talented and creative filmmaker with a passion for editing. Milad has worked on nine student film projects during his time at SAE Institute Brisbane and became widely regarded as a quick, reliable and efficient editor among his peers. Since graduating, he has gone on to edit the short film drama We're Gonna Be Fine, Honey starring actor and writer Alize, promotional material for the British crime web series The City Is Ours, and vampire horror feature The Veil of Night for Drive by Night Productions.

Currently, Milad is looking to continue his career editing feature films.
