

Bright
Coast
Productions

Nick Anderson

Sacramento, CA | Bright Coast Productions

Profile

Award-winning director and screenwriter with a proven ability to craft powerful, socially conscious films that balance cinematic storytelling with real-world impact. Founder of Sacramento-based Bright Coast Productions, with 15+ years of experience spanning features, shorts, documentaries, and commercial work. Skilled in both creative and technical production roles — from directing and producing to sound mixing and editing — with a reputation for elevating underrepresented voices and delivering polished, narrative-driven projects.

Selected Directing Credits

- The Right to Exist (2025) — Feature documentary on Sacramento's Camp Resolution, exploring systemic homelessness and community resilience.
- Farming for Our Future (2024) — 12-part digital docuseries on the climate crisis and California farms.
- The Invisible Homeless (2022) — Short documentary focused on women and children experiencing homelessness.
- The Merger (2021), The Change (2018), The Bust (2017) — Short narrative films.
- Mickey's Tree (2022), Iron Point Pirate (2023) — Award-winning shorts and branded storytelling projects.

Additional Film & TV Credits (Selected)

- The Last Crop (2016) — Director of Photography; documentary on farmland transition.
- Give Us This Day (2016) — Sound Mixer; feature documentary produced by All Rise Films.
- ESPN Super Bowl Promo (2024) — Sound Mixer.
- BBC Maestro (2023–24) — Sound Mixer; online masterclasses with leading industry figures.
- Insta Empire, Kenosha, Lost Heiress (2023–24) — Sound Mixer, TV/Digital.
- Golden (2023) — Production Coordinator, feature film.

Education

Chapman University, Dodge College of Film and Media Arts BFA in Film Production, 2006

Skills & Expertise

Directing | Producing | Screenwriting | Documentary Storytelling | Editing (Adobe Premiere, Final Cut Pro) | Sound Mixing & Design | Cinematography | Lighting | Story Development | Social Media & Marketing | Team Leadership