

The Man Behind Every Wave of Creative Contemplation:

Tushar Kanti Bandyopadhyay

(a poet, writer, director and film producer)

A Jury member of National Award for Feature film, nominated by the Ministry of Information and broadcasting, Govt. of India, Tushar travelled a long way for more than twenty years in the world of experimental theatre(1980–2002) while writing, acting and directing plays on both Indian and Western Classics. The contemporary, Romanticism, Tragedy and Comedy were always been a subject of interest. Finally, the subterranean passion for celluloid brought him in the arena of World Cinema in the years 2004.

A graduate from the University of Calcutta, Tushar was an alumna of Institute of Moving Images, Mumbai for an insightful academic study on filmmaking. Having inborn power of writing stories, poetries, scripts and screenplays in English, Hindi and Bengali Tushar has always been found innovative and creative in his creations. While pursuing his career in Mumbai he got opportunity to work under the renowned filmmakers like Shyam Bengal, Raj Kumar Santoshi and Ketan Mehta. He was lucky to be a co-actor with Sachin Khedekar in Netaji the Forgotten Hero, Amitav Bachchan in family and K K Menon in the tv serial 'Time Bomb'.

Tushar has already authored stories and scripts viz. 'A Distorted Rainbow', 'The Old Man and the City', 'He Dwelled in his Loneliness', 'Halood Phul (The Yellow Flower)', 'Mysterious Times', 'Tears in the Darkness', 'Black Moon'(Murder Mistry), 'The Burning Silence', 'Kishal' and 'Bimoksh (Emancipation)'.

His first films 'Mysterious Times'(2015) received all round applause and screened in the international festivals. Subsequently he made 'Tears in the Darkness'(2023) on the distressful life of Nobel Laureates Rabindra Nath Tagore. The film received 'Best Visionary Film Award' in the NABC film festival in Toronto(2025), Canada.

The journey of Tushar in the arena of World Cinema is now at its peak. His current endeavour in making a feature film 'Bimoksh-emancipation has already gone through its preview screening. The film is put on the circuit of National and International Film Festivals.
