Glasgow/West Sussex, UK

As a diligent freelance producer and writer who has recently graduated with a BA Honours Degree in Musical Theatre and Acting for Film, I have an everlasting admiration for film and television.

With a deep love for compelling story telling, I have been a passionate participant within various ambitious teams; whether that be developing original scripts with other writers or working closely on film sets with fellow creatives.

With a professional and driven mindset, as well as excellent interpersonal and analytical skills, I plan to pursue a career within the industry in an innovative and inspired manner.

EXPERIENCE

Short Film (multiple)- Producer and (Assistant) Director

I have directed, produced, written and acted in various short films. With these differing experiences, I have been able to acquisition my role on set as well as learning maintenance of an active functioning set within various production roles. These involvements have enhanced my creative problem solving, collaborative, multi-tasking and time management skills.

Griffin & Co Fine Jewellery - Sales Assistant, Bespoke Jewellery Designer and Social Media Manager 2025 - Ongoing

Whilst training/working as a Jeweller, I have further developed a remarkable attention to detail as I primarily work within designing and maintaining intricate diamond jewellery. I consistently display valuable customer service skills, developing close working relationships with each clientele, enabling a unique and personal experience per customer. Additionally, multi-tasking, time management and memory skills have furthered in excellence due to maintaining multiple ongoing customer projects simultaneously, each to equitable high standards.

Furthermore, being the Social Media Manager has enabled the refinement of marketing skills, campaign creativity and advertisement abilities.

Varying Hospitality (Taal Braidwood, WetherSpoons-) - (Head) Bar Staff and Waitress

Being a member of various hospitality teams have greatedened my communication skills; having to be in a consistent flow of communication with colleagues as well as leading Bar/ Waitering teams, ensuring the smooth running of a shift, especially within high pressurised situations. I was able to provide great customer service through product recommendations, conversational skills and cash management.
