Class/Study Experience

TV Studio Production
Fall 2024
In this course, I learned the integration of television studio facilities, scripting, and production techniques, while learning the skills to direct basic television formats. Directing exercises and individual projects including planning, producing, directing, and crew work, ending the semester with a practical live production.

Digital Media Production
Spring 2025
In this course, I learned advanced television production techniques including electronic editing, cinematography, special effects, and field media production. At the end of the semester I was tasked with creating an individual creative project using techniques throughout the semester.

Studio Directing Practicum
Fall 2025
In this course, I was tasked with hands-on studio television production in a supervised workshop. I took techniques I've developed from the last two semesters and craft live studio productions while also mentoring new students in the entry level studio production class.

Work Experience

TedX Barry University - Technical Director/Assistant Director
May 2025
As assistant/technical director for this production, I operated the tricaster, following our directors commands. This includes: Switching between cameras, fading graphics, queuing audio, and providing insight on different shots that our director needed.

"Abducted in the Everglades" a Lifetime feature film - Assistant/Shadowing Director
December 2024
Through networking, I met director Damien Romay, who invited me to the set of the production. During my time, I was able to sit next to the director, provide insight, and learn about filmmaking/directing on a feature film set.

Personal Ventures

Independent Filmmaking
2021-Present
Filmmaking, media, and communications is a passion of mine. From a young age, I've directed as well as acted as DP for a number of music videos, short films such as "The Come Up" and "The Adjudicator". Working with a small team, we've put together different creative projects to exhibit our own creativity and direction.
