

Wutt Suttasuntorn

PERSONAL DETAILS

EMAIL

tmtab.ws@gmail.com

LOCATION

Krabi, Thailand

NATIONALITY

British

PORTFOLIO

wuttcreative.mycanva.site

PROFILE

British writer and creator based in Thailand with an extensive portfolio spanning television comedy, stage plays, fiction, non-fiction, and documentary filmmaking. A published author and dynamic storyteller recognized for developing original, cross-cultural projects for stage and screen. Skilled in advanced script development, deep historical research, and crafting compelling narratives tailored for diverse, international audiences.

SELECTED ACHIEVEMENT

Official Selection – New York Tri-State International Film Festival 2026

Joy Beach Police (Television Comedy Pilot)

Awarded Official Selection honors at the 2026 New York Tri-State International Film Festival for Joy Beach Police, an original television comedy pilot.

EMPLOYMENT

Author | Playwright | Screenwriter | Documentary Filmmaker

Thailand | Present

Concepting and executing original fiction, television, stage, and documentary projects. Spearhead end-to-end creative production, leveraging deep cultural research, narrative design, and script development to deliver commercial-grade media assets.

2016–2020: Researched, authored, and published Thailand: More Than a Beach, a critically engaging non-fiction exploration into the country's rich culture, modern people, and hidden traditions.

2020–2023: Plotted, wrote, and finalized The Wang Lang: Bookshop Assassin, a stylized crime novel set in Bangkok that seamlessly balances suspense, underworld intrigue, and dark humor.

2024–2026: Created, wrote, and pitched Joy Beach Police, a television comedy pilot successfully selected by the New York Tri-State International Film Festival.

2025–2026: Penned and developed Nothing Is Ever What It Seems, a gripping, full-length period stage play set against the backdrop of 1890s Siam.

2026: Directed and developed Three Boys and a Monk, an intimate, character-driven documentary short film shot on location in Ko Kret, Thailand.

2026: Researched and structured Grandad's Journey, an upcoming historical fiction novel.

FICTION WORKS

The Wang Lang: Bookshop Assassin

A sharp crime novel set in Bangkok blending high-stakes mystery with dark humor.

Grandad's Journey

An immersive historical fiction novel currently in active development.

Murders at Joy Beach

An expansion of the television universe into a serialized crime mystery novel series.

God Mode

A high-concept, fast-paced speculative thriller novel.

CURRENT PROJECTS

Three Boys and a Monk

A compelling documentary short film capturing a Mon monk and three temple boys on Ko Kret island as they navigate friendship, traditional identity, and the modern realities waiting beyond the temple gates.

ADDITIONAL MEDIA

Thailand: More Than a Beach (YouTube)

Creator, director, and host of an independent travel and cultural documentary channel designed to explore local lifestyles and regions untouched by mainstream tourism.

NON-FICTION WORKS

Thailand: More Than a Beach

A deep-dive non-fiction book exploring the authentic layers of Thai culture, history, and community beyond the coastlines. Published in 2020.

UPCOMING RELEASES

Murders at Joy Beach

Crime mystery novel series adaptation.

Grandad's Journey

Historical fiction novel layout and drafting.

God Mode

Speculative thriller manuscript outline.

SKILLS

- Novel Writing
- Script Editing
- Fiction Writing
- Character Lore
- Non-Fiction Prose
- Dialogue Writing
- Screenwriting
- Deep Research
- Comedy Writing
- Content Creation
- Playwriting
- Interviewing
- Documentary Dev
- YouTube Prod