

“I doubt there will ever be another ship like the Storis...”
Jay St. Charles, Crew, 1971-1972

STORIS

The Galloping Ghost of the Alaskan Coast

STORIS

The Galloping Ghost of the Alaskan Coast

STORIS: The Galloping Ghost of the Alaskan Coast is a documentary that chronicles the nearly 65-year history of the United States Coast Guard Cutter Storis and examines the roles it played during World War II, the Cold War, and throughout the post-Cold War era. The documentary will introduce some of Storis's many officers and sailors as they recount the Storis's most famous missions that helped define the Coast Guard's mission in Alaska and beyond.