

Cassandra's Castle

Pilot One Sheet

Project Overview: This pilot is the first episode in the series Cassandra's Castle, a time travel adventure and historical fantasy story inspired by the 1908 Portuguese rebellion.

Goals: To provide family entertainment, and explore questions of rebellion, honor, and integrity in a fantasy environment based on historical events. We want to present a coming of age story within an intriguing setting suitable for all audiences.

Studio: Xylon Productions LLC. (Port Orchard, WA)

Writer: Dianne Gardner

Director: Chris Love

Title: Cassandra's Castle

Logline: Magic, rebellion, and a teenager's heart is torn between a cause and a king.

TRT: 1 hr.

Genre: Historical Fantasy

Storyline: A teenager from the Seattle time travels when she takes a selfie on her cell phone and ends up in the middle of a turn of the century rebellion.

Distribution: Netflix, HBO, Television

Target Audience: 16 to 65. Broad spectrum due to family oriented content.

Audience Engagement: Using a historical foundation, magic and fantasy is used to develop the characters and to give them depth and backstory. Both the villains and the heroes have causes, reasons, and goals which can find sympathy with the viewers.

Sponsorship and Funding Opportunities: Private solicitation for investors (Executive Producers).