LOST JOURNEY WAS ACQUIRED BY DISTRIBUTOR MONGREL MEDIA AND SOLD TO SUPER CHANNEL AND NETFLIX. THE FILM GARNERED SUPPORT FROM TELEFILM CANADA, WAS GIVEN A 35MM BLOW-UP, AND RELEASED THEATRICALY IN MULTIPLEX'S THROUGHOUT TORONTO AND LOS ANGELES.

Ant Horasanli has been working in the film and television industry for the past 12 years. Having studied film production at both York University and Humber College, he began his career with Redline - The Culture of Street Racing which won "Best Documentary Feature" in 2003 at the Long Island, New York Film Festival and was picked up for U.S. distribution.

Since then Ant Horasanli has produced and directed over 175 music videos and commercials commissioned by MuchFACT, Sony/BMG, Universal Music, Fontana North, EMI Canada, Ontario Lottery and Gaming Commission, Canadian Tire, Tabasco, and several others.

In 2008 Ant wrote, produced, directed, and edited his first feature film entitled Lost Journey. The film garnered support from Telefilm Canada and was released theatrically in multiplex's throughout Toronto and Los Angeles. The screenplay is on display at the Academy for Motion Picture Arts and Sciences (the Oscars ©). Lost Journey was acquired by distributor Mongrel Media and sold to Super Channel and Netflix.

In 2012 Ant Horasanli produced and directed his second documentary feature Turkification. The film marked a return to documentary filmmaking for Ant and has been invited to several film festivals to date.

In 2014 Ant was nominated for the Premier's Awards for Excellence in the Arts with a congratulatory letter from the Premier of Ontario. He is currently in post-production on his second feature film GEAR.

Synopsis

Arriving in Toronto from Iran, 19-year-old Pedram Abasi embarks on a journey shared by millions of people every year, adapting to a new language and culture. His aunt and uncle take him in and are delighted by his progress, until he meets Nima and Chrissy, who introduce him to a world of all night raves, promiscuous sex, and taking Ecstasy till sunrise. Before long, his family begins to regret letting him live with them. With his
