FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Award Winning Web Series KILL EM ALL Announces Additions to Ensemble Cast for Season 2

Kansas City, MO, May 2, 2014 - Open Media Enterprises announces that joining KILL EM ALL for its second season are Cobra Rhodes and Don Underwood, appearing as AK Jones and Vince Gilhouly, respectively.

Rhodes and Underwood both appeared in the first season of AMC's arm wrestling competition show GAME OF ARMS, competing for the Kansas City Rolling Thunder. Rhodes' Jones is a not-so-stable drug dealer in a difficult neighborhood, while Underwood's Gilhouly is a proud Irish American who owns and operates a neighborhood Irish pub with his brother.

Another new cast member is Seraphine Naeymi (PEP SQUAD), appearing as Elizabeth Martucci, the only daughter of mob boss Alfonse Martucci, and love interest to KILL EM ALL's central character, Carson McCullough.

Recently, KILL EM ALL was an official selection to the Kansas City Film Festival as well as the LA Web Fest. In Los Angeles, producers Jesse Pringle and Shawn Wright were on hand at the LA Web Fest to accept awards for Best Series in the Drama Category, Best Director in a Drama (Wright), Best Writer in a Drama (Pringle), Best Score in a Drama (performed by Kansas City's Flannigan's Right Hook). Los Angeles actor Richard Tyson (KINDERGARTEN COP, THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT MARY) also took home the prize for Best Guest Star in a Drama for his role as Quinn Flannigan, a wise-cracking Irish mobster, in KILL EM ALL's fourth episode of Season 1.

The series is produced by Jesse Pringle, Director/ Producer Shawn Wright, and Writer/ Producer Emily Herold.

Web Series Filmmakers are Given Prize and Purpose at the MidWest American Web Series Festival

Digital entertainment and the web series have purpose as the MidWest American Web Series Festival is welcomed in Kansas City, MO.

KANSAS CITY, MO (PRWEB) APRIL 13, 2016

Digital entertainment has spawned a new home for the web series in the midwest. The MidWest American Web Series Festival will be held in the heart of America, Kansas City, MO. Located in downtown Kansas City which once was the movie distribution capital of North American film, the MWA Web Fest will host a 3 day event August 26-28th. Kansas City is the home of Walt Disney, Don Cheadle, Ed Asner, Paul Rudd and so many film industry influences. Celebrity judges will include Hollywood actor Richard Tyson (Kindergarten Cop, Something about Mary) Shawn Edwards (Fox movie critic) and more to be announced.

MWA Web Fest will be hosted by "Mr. WebTV" Jesse Pringle (Digital Filmmaker Magazine feature Jan. 2016, creator of the Award Winning WebTV series Kill Em All Kansas City) and Richard Tyson.

The digital age of filmmaking is upon us and with Kansas City, MO having so much history in the film industry and now testing ground for the fastest growing internet technology in the world, Google fiber, the MWA WebFest will open the doors and build relationships between the developers of digital entertainment and the world's digital content distribution marketplace.

Friday, August 26 through Sunday, August 28 will roll out the red carpet and provide a unique filmmaking experience, historic tours, local attractions, parties, seminars and an awards banquet that will measure the largest in the film world.

Submissions for web series award consideration can be completed on the festival website
