

REPORT FROM THE SCREENING WORLD OF THE PUSSY TALKS

Even though the room has been chatty, buzzy and loud before starting, as soon as the film starts rolling and the first woman appears on the screen showing and speaking very directly about her pussy every audience is completely silent.

First there is shock or rather a jolt of awareness. Then curiosity and then sinking into presence. Deep viewing. Deep presence. Deep listening. Peace is alive. Everyday concerns disappear into tangible peace and presence. The space is riveting. Usually by the last five minutes some maybe restless. I know now that 55 minutes is about as much as someone can comfortably hold their attention to the Pussy action.

An extraordinary conversation is generated directly after viewing. After every screening so many reflections, responses and reactions arise. It is an opportunity for questions to be answered. And reactions and responses generate a rich dialogue with the audience.

There are so many questions expressed and explored over the last 12 months from women, and from men at each screening. This is exactly what The Pussy Talks is designed for. To allow one's awareness to notice what arises for you. As well as education it is a resource for self-observation. A resource for developing self-awareness and witnessing one's thoughts and reactions.
