An emotionally unstable lesbian couple tries to find solace after experiencing a traumatic loss.

SYNOPSIS

Recently discharged from the hospital, a distressed Lorie is still at a loss for words. Ryan, the pillar of their relationship, brings down her defenses in an attempt to console her. With Lorie on the brink of a complete breakdown, Ryan finally realizes that she too feels helpless. The two agree to embrace this hardship in hopes of moving forward.

CAST

IMANA BREAUX – LORIE

Imana Breaux is a Houston native who decided to move to NY to pursue an acting career. Trained in theater since the age of 8, Imana has gone on to study at both the American Musical and Dramatic Academy and the Conservatory program at AMDA New York. Upon graduation, Imana has been in multiple feature films, shorts, and theater productions.

She is currently the Co-Founder of Operate Using Imagination (OUI) Production Company, where they are preparing for the launch of their Mistake Web-series.
