LOVE, BITES

a film by AJAY GOVIND

Love, Bites is a romantic drama about an artist, Karthik and a scientist, Meghna

Their sexual chemistry is obvious to everyone - even to those who haven't seen them together, since they like to flaunt the hickeys on their body. But something changes in their equation when the hickey becomes a bridge of memory that leads to an old sexual encounter Meghna had which Karthik finds out about.

Will Meghna be able to help Karthik erase the marks of her past? Or will Karthik just to have wake up to a realization that the past, even though it haunts, might not be real.
