

MUNKEY IN THE CITY Director's Biography/Filmography

Biography

MICHAEL T. NGUYEN is a writer/director/producer living in the San Francisco Bay Area pursuing his career as an independent filmmaker. Having graduated from UC Santa Barbara in Asian American Studies and studying Film Production at City College of San Francisco, he is determined to create films that explore and redefine the meaning and place of the Asian diaspora across America. An actively creative visionary concerned with the human condition and the relationships between us, he uses his personal work to explore issues of race, sex, gender and class, as it relates to society and culture.

Michael has directed numerous short films, including The System (2014), The Hurt House Sitter (2014), The Discipline (2012), and AF/WM (2006). MUNKEY IN THE CITY is his first professionally produced project.
