To whom it may concern,

I would like to offer the following letter in support of Miss Gunjan Menon. I tutored Gunjan during her time as a Masters Student for her studies at the University of the West of England, where she recently completed her MA in Wildlife Filmmaking.

Throughout her studies, which are practice-based and industry focused on filmmaking and broadcast standard production, she demonstrated a very high level of creativity and professionalism. Our standards are high and I am delighted that her final film production has brought together the skills she has developed in; research, ideas development, filming scripting and editing. This enabled her to deliver an impressive production that is engaging, informative and extremely thought provoking.

Throughout the initial story development and production, Gunjan work diligently and with professional commitment to tell an important story of courage and determination. She clearly worked attentively with her contributors to capture some revealing and sensitive interviews. She has also contributed to a number of co-curricular filming projects throughout her time at UWE.

I wish to offer my support for the recognition of her film work and for her future projects as a professional filmmaker.

Yours faithfully
