Award Winning Web Series Everyone's Famous launches Second Season

January 3, 2017 – Halifax, Nova Scotia. Oh great, more stuff for the internet. Yup, watch sasquatch hunters, exorcists, clowns, aliens and even a flash mob funeral, as people turn cameras on themselves and hope for the best; the best being a wildly popular video to make them famous. Written, directed and starring some of Nova Scotia's funniest creators, Everyone's Famous serves up a new episode every Thursday (10AM EST) on Youtube, Facebook, Vimeo and Daily Motion.

Season One saw one man, Donald trying to create viral videos, only to fail at every attempt. In Season Two, everyone starts filming, hoping to hit it virally big. In front of the camera you'll see Cathy Jones, Bette MacDonald, Bill Wood, Bill Carr, Molly Dunsworth, Glenn Mathews, Nicole Steeves, Rhys Bevan-John, Josh MacDonald, Brian MacQuarrie and many more.

"We gathered a great group of artists to make this season," says show producer, Walter Forsyth. "We are proud of the series and happy to share it."

The series took home the Best Actor Award at the HollyWeb Festival, a Canadian Comedy Award for Best Female Performance, Best Visual Effects at Northern Frights Film Fest, Best Comedy at West Virginia's Things 2 Fear Festival and was nominated for two Canadian Screen Awards so far.
