SON OF MAN

A young man in a red superhero cape is shown in profile, facing right. His face is covered in blood, particularly around the eye and cheek area. The background is a blurred blue and white brick wall.

Logline: In the aftermath of a controversial superhero's death, his brother mourns and recounts memories of growing up beside him.

Film Description: Son of Man is a short film that explores the persecution of a modern day superhero, and the struggles his family must deal with in the wake of his death. His brother, James, wrestles to come to terms with his loss and the supernatural power he had, and whether or not to believe in what he stood for.
