Ani is a journalist who was charged by her diary to write an article about Ezra dead during an attack. For doing this, she organized an appointment with Lily, the sister of the deceased, in a pub. While she was waiting for her in the bar, she will make an unexpected meeting that will not leave her indifferent.

Jawad Bentanji the cameraman talking with Célia Cohninaire the script about the next take. Some elements moved, we have to take back the scene

The director Gazanfer Biricik giving acting directives to Laurent Deve (Gabriel) for the scene where Gabriel is looking Ani coming inside the pub, just after Gabriel has to wait seconds before following Ani. There is a little problem when taking that scene, like others taken outside, an engine worked for a building society made a horrible noise in front of the street, that bothered Wail El Malki the sound engineer.

Bio

Director's Bio

Gazanfer BIRICIK started his career by Actor studio in 2010 at Acting International in Paris. From 2011 to 2012 he played in theater with Jacky Sigaux. From 2012 to 2014 he improved his acting face to camera with Jérôme Genevray. In June 2014 he followed the Masterclass of Luc Besson where he has seen his gaps, the difficulties of directing a film, and has improved his ability.

He has done his first short with a cell phone in 2011 "et maintenant on va où". Selected by festivals in France and Belgium. After that one he has directed a lot of shorts like "13", or "The Heartthrob". Some of them have been selected in festivals like Los Angeles Lift off.

He has written a lot of screenplay for shorts, features or TV series. These projects, to be produced, need big companies investments.

He has written the short "GAB" to transmit his view of world, convinced that it's possible to live in harmony whatever people faith, culture, ideal, and view can be.

All his projects are written in the same view or ideal, to live together whatever "who we are".

He believes that cinema is the only way to show people that it's possible to live in peace wherever you live in the world, no matter of what's people faith, culture, view, or ideology.

He has a dream : "Peace all around the world"
