FEES

In addition to tuition fees, you will also be assessed student fees as outlined in the UBC Calendar. All fees for the year are subject to adjustment and UBC reserves the right at any time to change any fees without notice, including tuition and student fees. For more information on tuition and other fees, refer to <http://www.calendar.ubc.ca/vancouver>. Fees are normally due during the first week of each academic term. They can be paid electronically through the Student Service Centre: <http://students.ubc.ca/enrolment/records/ssc-login-help>.

As an international student in a research-based graduate program, you may be eligible for an International Tuition Award in the amount of $3,200 CAN. This award will automatically be granted to you, unless you receive external funding for your tuition from your home government or other funding agency which is equal to or higher than the value of the International Tuition Award. Students who receive such external funding for their tuition are not eligible for the International Tuition Award. More information is available here: <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/awards/international-tuition-award>.

SCHOLARLY INTEGRITY

UBC has important policies concerning scholarly integrity that apply to all students. Please refer to our Academic Calendar: <http://www.universitycounsel.ubc.ca/policies/scholar.html>. Please contact your program's Graduate Advisor if you will be working on research projects, as you should receive a letter from the principal investigator outlining research conditions and expectations. Please refer to the supervision section of our website: <http://www.grad.ubc.ca/current-students/supervision-advising>.

ON CAMPUS STUDENT HOUSING

Students wishing to live on-campus must apply separately for campus housing. We urge applicants to apply for on-campus housing as soon as possible, as supply is limited. See <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/campus-community/life-vancouver-canada/accommodation-housing> for more information.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES AND ON-LINE STUDENT COMMUNITY

UBC offers many support services to help students thrive and succeed during their studies. Please see <http://www.grad.ubc.ca/new> for more information. Please also join our on-line student community to interact with other prospective, new or ongoing UBC graduate students, ask questions, get answers and begin making contacts. <https://community.grad.ubc.ca/>.
