ON ABC IVIEW AND ABC COMEDY YOUTUBE

Join Triple J's Veronica and Lewis as they attempt to answer the age-old question of What Could Go Wrong? -by revealing fifteen of Australia's maddest, craziest, and excruciating real-life stories.

Along with guests YouTuber Ozzy Man Reviews, comedians Demi Lardner and Aaron Gocs, performers Genevieve Morris and Patti Newton, this innovative and experimental short form documentary series reimagines tales in creative and unique ways of when things have gone horribly wrong.

Across 15 episodes, true tales include; a Christmas choir performance disaster/mishap, finding an 'unexpected guest' in your hotel room, a wedding proposal that became national news for all the wrong reasons, an accident in high school that left a student with a lasting reputation, an attempt to win an ex-partner back that goes bad, chocolates spiked with a little extra something that create an unforgettable 21st birthday party, and a prank in a church that goes further than intended.

Veronica and Lewis bring their own experiences as they attempt to unpack the stories in What Could Go Wrong? and discuss the very Australian approach of being able to look back and laugh at ourselves.

Produced by Mashup Pictures, the team behind the ABC TV documentary series Housemates, comes a series for ABC iview and ABC Comedy YouTube. All 15 episodes (4mins each) are available to watch as part of the ABC Summer Comedy Binge on ABC iview, and three episodes will launch each week on the ABC Comedy YouTube Channel.

Producer and co-director Rob Innes comments; "when we called the series 'what could go wrong?', we really hoped that it wasn't a bad omen...", with writer and director Scott Brennan adding; "but we realised when life gives you lemons, don't make lemonade. Make a series about it".
