45 WILLOW DRIVE

45 Willow Drive

The pilot episode from creator Eric Ruiz and writer Brandon F. Johnson's 45 Willow Drive mini-series script. Inspired by True Detective, The Night Of and Big Little Lies. In today's age of technology, the goal of the film to visually show someone is always watching.

Carlos E. Macher and Eric Ruiz envisioned an alternative way to see messages, phone calls and computers shown on screen. A different take on the thriller/mystery genre. With the main protagonist Detective Addilyn Rhodes (Michal Roxie Johnson) not revealed until the final act, the pilot episode sets up the unmasking of what really happened the night of.

Carlos E. Macher is a filmmaker and actor from Lima, Peru. Now in Washington, DC. In the U.S. has worked projects including, the documentary "Third Act", assistant director for the series "Sam Dates," and collaborated as cinematographer in the series "The Crossroads" for Bertelsmann Foundation. In Peru worked as a director/producer on "Cuarto Cero", "El Jardín Perdido" and the pilot series "Visiones".
