

“High Five, Sister!”

Directors: Annika Capelán, Petr Nuska

Original title: “High Five, Sister!”

Country: United Kingdom

Year of release: 2018

Runtime: 8 minutes

Language: English

Subtitles: English

Projection format: Full HD

<https://vimeo.com/253401310>

"High Five, Sister!" is an ethnographic glimpse onto an eventful and happy day of two Manchester girls. When they join the Manchester Day parade together with their friends and family, their identity as 'girls with special needs' does not predominate. The film portrays the girls as firmly situated in their own lives and stresses the powerful message that being attentive and to care for each other must be a precondition for our common future.