This Nationally popular Lecture/Workshop will hit in your community because everybody likes to hear about Hollywood - even if they do not want to become a working entertainer.

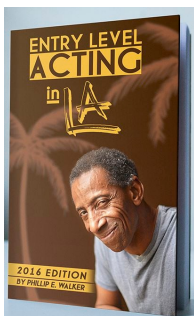

But for those that do dream of “making it” in La La Land, this information is not just fun but life changing! HAJ is the Sherpa’s living guide up the mountain of Los Angeles talent full-time employment.

Having premiered 8-15-16 at Chicago’s Black Ensemble Theater, this employment advise was also presented for the Huffington Post reported California Educational Theatre Association’s 2017 Statewide Annual Conference at the Academy of Television & Sciences (Emmy’s home); as well as in Honolulu; in Texas; in rural Wyoming; the Inland Empire of SoCal; NYC, Brooklyn plus Western & Central New York State and more.

Hollywood Actor Jobs is speckled with Phillip E. Walker video clips of his more than 900 performing gigs or appearances during his first 5 LA years such as: 90 music videos (Justin Timberlake’s “Can’t Stop the Feeling!” Trolls movie theme song, the 2nd person to appear in Beyonce’s long playing music movie “Lemonade”, J. Cole’s “ATM”, Bruno Mars’ “Uptown Funk”, Kendrick Lamar’s first two Grammy Award wins for “T”); feature films like The Other Wife; many short film Starring roles such as Oops! which recently completed 100 plus airings Nationwide in the African American Short Film Series on Network TV station local affiliates plus PhilE’s first SAG Commercial Principal role in the Darren Aronofsky directed USFDA video game “Only One Leaves”; etc. Further, this Workshop session shares how Phillip’s Hollywood entry level acting work has lead him to multiple Co-Starring TV series roles including: Marvel TV’s Legion opposite Dan Steven, HBO TV’s Sharp Objects opposite Amy Adams and, as chronicled in his talent employment workbook, the Lead’s father in the late John Singleton’s Snowfall on FX.
