PRODUCER'S PROFILE

Gaurav has an impeccable taste in art, films, music and after Learning Film-making from International Academy of Film and Television with the world famous mentors and who worked as a DOP and assisted many renowned Cinematographers, he followed this passion and headed to the bright lights of India.

"One word cannot encapsulate the true essence of this fine specimen. He is in fact human, in case you were wondering. He was born and raised into a talented Indian family, atypical artist/man. His interests range from Music to Film Making and his adaptability to various environments is astounding. He is a man of healthy vigor and aspirations who cries from within, but, on the exterior only expresses stern strength and confidence but do not overlook the caring sparkle in his eyes when he quietly listens. He grows thick hair, and often does in fact do that. These are some of the results to an extensive case study, but my research continues".
