DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT;

I am open to all kinds of storytelling by creating a blend of various forms of art to make a stronger and powerful visual story that's associated with more than just one element or perspective, I believe that each project I work on is different from the previous or the next, and I respect the fact that different people can express each element differently, the world we live in is prone to responding to audio visual works. I am always looking forward to telling and creating films that have something positive to say. I am always humbled and honored that my films reach many audiences and share a story they may not have known before. My hope is to carry on this inspiration to others.

FAQ - Frequently Asked Questions;

Q: How long did it take shooting JUDAS KISS?

A: It took us about 7 days, we first shot the torture scenes in 2 days, then we took a break of a motn and shot the rest of the scenes in 5 days.

Q: Why did you make it a non-linear story?

A: We decided to take the non-linear storytelling style because we believe its the new way to engage the audience to tell the story with you, we love capturing people's attention this way.

Q: What was your toughest moment while making this film?

A: The back to back day and night shoots with less than two hours of rest every day but it was fun.

Q: Why the title "JUDAS KISS"?

A: This is a film of betrayal, we picked a bibilical phrase for betrayal to drive more curiosity.

Q: What genre is the film?

Oh well, the film is a remix of thriller, romantic comedy, I'd call it a Romantic Comedy Drama Thriller, its that packed in a way that it gives all feelings and emotions of each genre it represents.
