

CADRE VR

PRESENTS

*Virginia Dare
& the Devil*

Dear Friend,

If thou art reading this, then we have been forgotten.

We are forsaken by Queen Elizabeth to forge our path in the New World alone.

Rumors will say savages killed us, or we died of starvation.

Christened the Lost Colony of Roanoke.

This record is thy last hope of setting the record straight once and for all.

Believe when I say that I killed the Devil and paid the ultimate price with thy soul.

Call it blasphemy, but if reading this, for the love of God continue to discover thy mystery.

for it is a ghostly tale indeed.

Forever in your heart,

Virginia Dare

First English born child of Virginia.

Princess of the Croatan & Governess of the New World

3D VIRTUAL REALITY FANTASY MOVIE

Set in last days of the "Lost Colony" in the early 1600s, Virginia Dare, the first English child born in America is now a teenage warrior princess.

Virginia must slay the Wendigo that threatens her family of English settlers and Croatan tribespeople before a civil war erupts tearing her world apart.

USER EXPERIENCE

Virginia Dare & the Devil is a cinematic and character-driven 3D live-action story designed to be accessible to broad audiences that are not yet familiar with virtual reality.

The seated 3D VR experience feels like a lucid dream flashing before the viewer's eyes!

Audiences are taken on a journey back in time that puts them in the middle of the action.

People will see what it was like to live in the unwritten history of America in this fantasy folk tale adventure.

Seeing physical actors, costumes, props, and special effects in 3D make the experience feel real!

Dynamic camera movement combined with fast pace editing takes the viewer through the narrative.

To enhance the fantastical elements of the story we will combine live-action VR180 video with 3D CGI game engine environments and characters.

MAIN CHARACTERS

Virginia Dare

Wendigo

Chief Manteo

Eleanor Dare

Captain Ananias Dare

Chief Wanchese

LOCATIONS

North Carolina Forrest

English Colony Fort

Croatan Village

CHAPTERS

CHAPTER 1

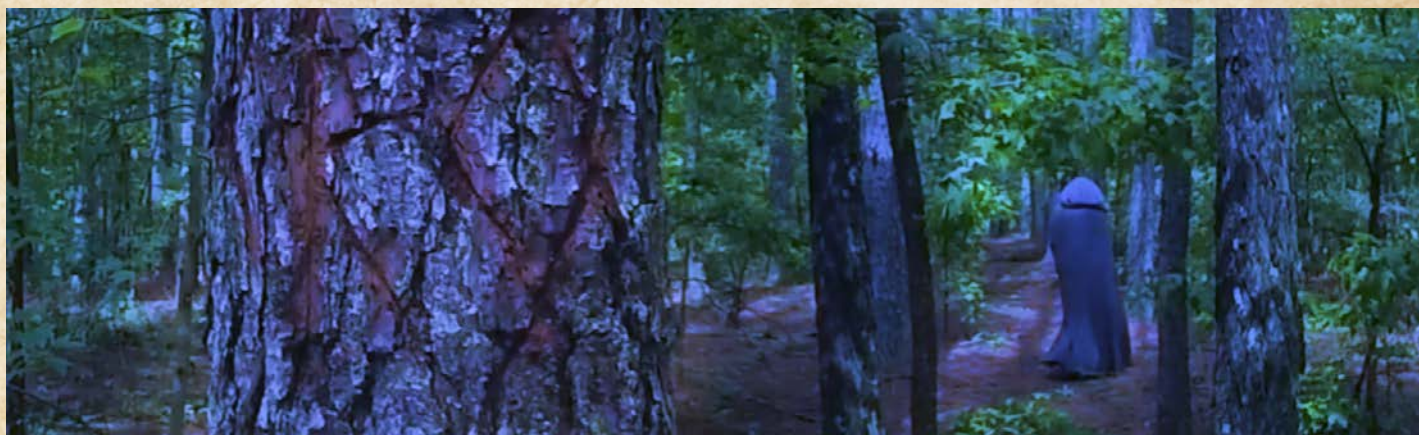

An Englishman is mysteriously murdered and so the colonist's blame the Croatan tribe. Virginia Dare and Manteo discover evidence of a murder done by a "beast." Eleanor Dare, Virginia's mother, is a secret witch and performs a scrying spell to see the monster.

CHAPTER 2

Manteo goes to the rival chief his brother, Wanchese, for information. Wanchese says he had a vision of the future where the Englishmen kill all of their people and destroy the earth. So he conjured up a wendigo demon that feeds off fear to destroy the colonists to change the future. A group of colonists led by Virginia's father, Captain Dare, burn Manteo's home in revenge but ambushed by the Wendigo.

CHAPTER 3

Virginia and Manteo help Captain Dare escape from the monster. Manteo warns Captain Dare of an attack on the village by Wanchese now that their guard is down. Virginia volunteers herself as a bride to the Croatian tribe to join the two communities. Chief Wanchese's son Prince Okisko and Virginia have been friends since childhood and are happy to get married to each other.

CHAPTER 4

At Virginia's wedding, the Wendigo attacks killing Prince Okisko, Chief Wanchese, Captain Dare and most of the colony and tribe. Virginia Dare grapples the demon before Manteo and Eleanor use magic to fend it off.

CHAPTER 5

Virginia Dare asks the remaining colonist and tribespeople who will help her kill the Wendigo and no one volunteers. An injured Manteo and Elenore prepare a magic spell that would destroy the demon, but they require its heart. Virginia fights the Wendigo and kills it single-handedly but wounded in the battle.

CHAPTER 6

Manteo and Elenore use the Wendigo's heart to make a magic potion to save Virginia. She then starts to heal but transform into a wendigo and kills Manteo. Elenore then lures Virginia to Croatan stomping ground but is unable to kill her daughter, so she casts Virginia into the spirit dimension.

That place dubbed "The Devil's Tramping Ground" is haunted to this day and has been for over 400 years. According to legend, nothing can live in the circle, and anything left inside of it will be pushed out by morning. Teenagers for decades have tried to sleep in the ring to prove the mystery wrong and have repeatedly called a horned beast stalking them all night. Those who light a fire in the circle for light and warmth unknowing temporarily releases the tortured soul of Virginia Dare and her eternal battle with evil.

TECHNICAL PLATFORM

- Played on virtual reality headsets
- Seated VR experience
- 60-minute film with 10 minute chapters
- 3 DOF
- Passive third-person point of view
- Live-action Performances
- 5.7K 180-degree video
- 3D/Stereoscopic Video
- Spatial audio
- Unity game engine visual effects
- Simple 180-degree forward facing point of attention
- May cause light motion sickness

DIRECTOR/PRODUCER:

William Frasca

William Frasca is the Director and Producer of Virginia Dare & the Devil. He began working in the Southeast film industry in 2012 after graduating with a BA in Film Studies from UNCW. Soon after he gained further experience and production knowledge working on sets like Iron Man 3, NBC's Revolution, CBS's Under the Dome, and Fox's Sleepy Hollow working as a featured extra and stand-in. As an actor he would be cast as a co-star in Lionsgate's Blue Mountain State: The Rise of Thadland movie and other TV supporting roles on networks like MTV, Discovery ID, and Smithsonian Channel.

In 2016, William became the Assistant Director of Multimedia at UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School enhancing his production skills. At the Launch Chapel Hill Accelerator, Frasca founded Cadre VR and created his first two prototype films, "HG Wells The Invisible Man" and "Virginia Dare & the Devil". William currently resides in Boston and works for Northeastern University as a Multimedia Design Specialist as well as running his startup Cadre VR developing new VR projects.

CADRE VR

William Frasca
Cadre VR
CadreVR@gmail.com
www.CadreVR.com