DIRECTOR/WRITER

BIO

New York City based Writer and Director with experience in the music industry creating social media content for music artists as well as experimental film concepts {David Bowie, Smashing Pumpkins}. As a director (and screenwriter) my personal projects explore the narrative worlds of loss, regret and redemption. My storytelling style is heavily influenced by my training and background as a fiction writer and as a Script Supervisor. When directing the works of other writers as well as my own I strive to maintain a deep respect for the balance between narrative voice, creative structure and visual storytelling.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

10+ years of on set experience that includes Directing, Script Supervising and Production Assistance. This pertains to narrative film (short films and features), music productions and fashion photo shoots. I have worked in these roles for companies such as Sony Music, Warner Music, David Bowie, Yes Boss, Enza Costa, Misha Nonoo and with various independent productions. As a trained fiction and screen writer I have the utmost respect for the art of storytelling and the importance of script fidelity.

In mid-2018 I joined the faculty of The New York Film Academy teaching Introduction to Screenwriting & Directing as the core instructor for their Youth & Teen Program. In late-2018 I was asked to join the faculty of the Miami Ad School where I teach Cinematic Storytelling to post-graduate advertisers, i.e. copywriters, art directors and strategists.
