HÅ-BER

HÅBER (2020) is a meditation on grief and courage. Noah Howell a young and successful New Yorker is on the brink of accepting a career changing promotion alongside his partner and long time girlfriend Caroline, when he gets a life halting call from Sudan. Håber is a short film that faces us with the choices we didn't have the courage to make.

A BRIEF INTRODUCTION OF THE FILMMAKERS OF @HABERFILM

A DIRECTING DUET COMPOSED OF

LORENZO POZZAN (CATCH-22) AND IMANI LOVE (CONTROL) BASED IN NEW YORK CITY. BORN IN THE ENCHANTING SINKING CITY OF VENICE, RAISED IN THE ETERNAL CITY OF ROME LORENZO MOVED TO NEW YORK WITH HIS HEART IN HIS HAND AND A ROLE IN A MODERN TWIST OF A SELECTION OF ITALIAN PLAYS AT NYU. WHIILE HERE AND TRAINING IN MEISNER HE MET IMANI LOVE.

A daughter of American gypsies-- Imani grew up around the south western coast of the United States. After graduation she moved to the big city to collect and tell stories when she met Lorenzo in the halls of acting school. The two began sharing their intersectional narratives with one another and began to find a way to harmonize not only their differences but similarities. Amour Luciani was born out the dichotomy of being human and the love of sharing stories.

Captured by Nuru Kimondo in her studio in Bushwick.
