

MILLION TO ONE

Style:

Full Length Feature Film

Genre:

Romantic Comedy

MPAA Rating:

PG

Logline:

When Martin places an anonymous ad in the NY Times asking a million people to mail him one dollar, he is shocked when the plan actually works; but quickly experiences the turmoil it causes with his girlfriend, the City, and the IRS; So his quest begins to find the ultimate return on investment, Or will the love of money cost him everything?

Overview

An unemployed writer suddenly becomes rich beyond his wildest dreams, but when it threatens to end his engagement he has to make a decision. That's the easy part. The hard part is how to unload millions. But where? What is the most worthy cause on the planet? Or whom? If you really wanted to do the most good, what would be the best way to spend a large sum of money? He turns to his best friends, a postal worker, a bank manager and a family services worker.

Target Audience

Millennials, College Age and Young Married and Un-married adults.

Projected Budget

1MM based on cast, New York locations and special effects.

Original Screenplay

Written by Scott Michael Branan, Registered WGA and ©2018 with the Library of Congress. An early version of the script is still available on paperback from Amazon.com

Special Note

While this story isn't a religious one, this family friendly, heart warming story can be enjoyed by many on several different levels which is why it has become an official selection by both secular and religious film festivals.

Screenplay Awards as of Oct. 1st, 2019

*Hollywood Divine	Pennsylvania	Honorable Mention- Best Screenplay
*Hollywood Divine	Pennsylvania	Nominated- Most Original Screenplay
*International Christian Film Festival	Florida	Official Selection
*God Country Family Christian Film Festival	Wisconsin	Official Selection
Houston Comedy Film Festival	Texas	Official Selection
Portland Comedy Film Festival	Oregon	Official Selection
Atlanta Comedy Film Festival	Georgia	Official Selection
L.A. Comedy Festival	California	Official Selection
All Genre Screenplay Contest	California	Official Selection

Additional Tie-Ins

This film has potential to partner with child adoption agencies or any children's organization for cross promotion.