

Film Title: TANDOORI

Log line:

Poor and charming Jonaki meets rotten meat racket gang member Kamal and plans to have a future with him away from crime, unaware that vultures are closing in.

Synopsis:

The background of this story is a dumpyard of Suburb of Kolkata. One of the protagonists in this film Kamal, along with his accomplice Bisha supplied rotten meat from the dumping ground to the hotel. They both are a bit criminal and actually part of a big racket. Incidentally Kamal met Jonaki in that dumping yard and after her father's death Jonaki accepted Kamal as a shelter. Bisha also tried to own Jonaki. For his own interest Bisha betrayed Kamal and complained to their boss Mr. Dutta to humiliate Kamal. Meanwhile, the arrests were going on when the rotten meat incident flashed in news media. Kamal surrendered to police advised by Jonaki. In the absences of Kamal, when Bisha with another lumpen attempted to rape Jonaki, she stabbed them to death for self defense.

The recent shocking incident of news media, Crime, Poverty, Love of Lumpens, Betrayal, Puppet Police, Following the traditional theme of Indian movie 'Victory of Women Power'- these are the key factors of the film.

Cast:

Kousik Mandal (Kamal)
SRJ (Bisha)
Sneha Chatterjee (Jonaki)
Dutta Babu (Abhishek Tewari)

Story: Suhita Meghtandra Sikdar
Screenplay & Direction: Biplab Das
Cinematography & Editing: Sourim
Back ground score: Dipak Kumar TLW

Budget: INR. 95000
Camera: Sony A7S
Medium: Color
Run-time: 32mins 8secs

Video:

Frame-rate: 23.96 fps
Square pixel
Dimension: 1920 X 816
Aspect ratio: 2.35:1

Audio:

Bit-rate: 320kbps
Type: Sterio
Sample rate: 48.000kHz