PLOT SUMMARY

The movie is about a psychologist, Tuong Minh who provides psychotherapy to An Nhlen, a young female writer suffering from anxiety disorder. Nhlen states that she's obsessed by a certain girl. Strangely, the girl she mentioned is the main character in her first novel, The Whispering. Through the treatment and study of her novel, Tuong Minh gradually realizes that what Nhlen wrote in her book is not fictitious, but her real sorrowful memories. With his professional methods, Minh tries to help Nhlen face her unpleasant story in the past. He hopes she could overcome her obsession and commence a new life.

However, during the treatment, Minh steadily immerses himself in Nhlen's story and her obsession. He starts to see nightmares regularly and have hallucination. He even finds himself obsessed by a girl. Gradually, he isn't able to distinguish between reality and imagination. The obsession which becomes more serious makes him confused and almost insane. Though he denies his psychological disorder, the increasing obsession causes him to kill himself unconsciously.

PLOT SUMMARY

At the moment of life and death, Tuong Minh is saved by An Nhien. When calm, he realizes the girl obsessing him the whole time is the one from his painful past which he did forget about due to selective amnesia. That girl is Thuy Duong, his first love, who passed away. It's to say, through the treatment for An Nhien, Tuong Minh's horrific memories are awake. In the past, an 18-year-old Tuong Minh fell in love with Thuy Duong. Due to her complicated family issue, Duong was a vulnerable and ambivalent person, which led to the couple's break-up. Stuck in the troubles of family and love, Duong committed suicide. Minh hurtfully blamed her death on himself. Then, he killed himself but was saved by his family. However, the severe trauma made him suffer from selective amnesia. Therefore, he couldn't remember anything about Thuy Duong and the involved memories.

Eventually, with An Nhien's help, Tuong Minh bravely faces his painful past. He's also able to relieve the feelings of guilt he has been suffering for the last 15 years. Regarding An Nhien, through the journey of treatment with Tuong Minh, she understands the meaning of listening, sharing and facing the pains. She now can get over her obsession and begin a new life.
